Prior Art Citation

1. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Shimazaki et al. (6,101,153) and Kobayashi (6,097,695), both disclose an optical disk apparatus having an optical disk recorded beforehand with pre-pits, and reproducing circuit which includes PRML decoder for decoding the reproduced information.

Reasons For Allowance

2. The following is an Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance:

The prior art of record alone or in combination does not teach or suggest the reproducing method having the combination of steps with their recited process, along with having the first and second reproducing circuits are separately provided and a minimum pit of the written recording data is based on a 2T system, as set forth in the claim, and as disclosed in the specification.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the Issue Fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the
